1874 to 1905 received in the Munsiff's Court Phinoy are heaped up with hardly any space for printed forms and blank registers required for use in the Court and that copies of myore fagete are to be preserved permanently

Part II in all courts except at courts may be ~~used~~ sold and the Rule of Court amended accordingly

NOTES AND ORDERS.

The Chief Court further suggests that the copies of the myore fagete will be sold unless they are required for use by Court. In the local records, there is a Kind reference is invited to Table D in R.P. no 122 dated 26th Sept 1905 (7L: M). Under item 12 "The Mysore Gazette" is to be preserved permanently in all the Civil Courts. The chief court ^{recommended} ~~considered~~ that in the District Court the Mysore Gazette may be kept permanently and in ^{other} ~~other~~ Civil Subordinate Civil Courts, only Part III of the Gazette may be retained permanently and the other parts for only 5 years.

The recommendation may be sanctioned.

In the amendment of the Rule of Practice proposed by the chief court there is one difficulty.

In R.P. 122 of 26th Sept 1905 (M) the Mysore Gazette bears the serial no 12. This R.P. was amended by R.P. dated 3rd April 1917 by adding two serials 7A & 10A. (7L: M)

In the proposed R.P., the Mysore Gazette is stated to be ^{be} serial no 14. Under the R.P.'s of 1905 & 1917, this is not correct. No 14 was ~~not~~ probably mentioned by reference to the table printed on page 59 of the General Rules & Orders and vol II. This number is not an Registrar, Chief Court of Mysore.

To

B. NAGAPPA, Esq., Bar-at-law, Secretary to the Government of His Highness
the Maharaja of Mysore, Law Department,

Sir,

B A N G A L O R E.

I am directed to state that the District Judge of -- Shimoga reports that copies of the Mysore Gazette from 1874 to 1910 received in the Munsiff's Court at Shimoga are heaped up in the -- room where printed forms are preserved, that there is hardly any -- place therein left for keeping the printed forms and blank registers supplied for the use of that court and therefore solicits permission to sell them.

Under Serial No. 14 of Table D appended to Civil Rule of Practice No. 122, dated the 26th September 1905, (Vide: para 35, printed at Page 59, General Rules and Orders - Civil Volume II) copies of the Mysore Gazette have to be preserved permanently. With the growing number of registers etc., every year which are to be -- preserved permanently or for long periods, the question of finding accommodation for the old volumes of the Gazette becomes difficult as space in the existing record rooms becomes congested. Moreover the occasions or necessity for civil courts referring to old issues of the Gazette are few and far between and the advantages of -- permanently preserving them will not outweigh the disadvantages in regard regard to the difficulty of finding space for them.

The Chief Court therefore considers that it will be sufficient for all practical purposes if issues of the Mysore Gazette (except Part III) are preserved for/period of five years in all civil courts other than the District Courts, and that in the -- District Courts the volumes may be preserved permanently so that if any subordinate court has occasion to refer to any of the -- previous issues, the particular issue may be got from the District Court concerned.

Part III of the Mysore Gazette contains rules and enactments etc., and they should therefore be preserved permanently in all -- the Civil Courts.

I am to request that Government may be pleased to accord -- sanction to the enclosed addendum and corrigendum to the rules regarding the period of preservation of the Mysore Gazettes.

I am further to request information as to whether the Government would find any use for the old issues of the Mysore Gazettes, -- which under the amended rules are not to be preserved for more than five years. If they are not wanted for any purpose, then arrangements will be made for their disposal by sale, the proceeds being credited to Government.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

M. Srinivasan
